THE DETAILS

When: On each Friday morning, the schedule will be: coffee and donuts at 8:00 a.m., session from 8:15 – 9:15 a.m., and you at your office working by 9:30 a.m.

What: On four Friday mornings this summer, you are invited to attend a series of one-hour sessions in the 134th District Court to learn about various areas of the law. Each session will include (1) coffee and donuts, (2) a brief lecture-style presentation accompanied by a white paper, (3) a short demonstration by two lawyers and Judge Stanton on the effective presentation of the topic, and (4) a discussion period. Each session has been approved by the State Bar of Texas for 1.00 hours of MCLE including .25 hours of ethics.

Who: Anyone interested in learning more about effective courtroom advocacy is invited to attend. We expect attendance by lawyers, law clerks, summer associates, interns, law students, and judges.

Where: The 134th District Court is located on the 6th Floor of the George Allen, Sr. Courts Building at 600 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas 75202. The Court can be reached by phone at (214) 653-6995.

How much: The sessions are free. Please confirm your attendance to Rhonda Brooks via email at rbrooks@dallascourts.org to insure we have enough donuts, coffee, and handouts.
